HORRIBLE CONTEST.

A DRINKING DUEL.

The New York Sunday Dispatch says: "A fatal drinking match come off in Williamsburgh a few days ago, which has not yet been made public. It appears that there was a dispute between an old French physician and the proprietor of one of the largest breweries in the place, as to which of the two could drink the most liquor and carry it off. They decided to test the question by a trial, said test to be a match at drinking liquors at a convenient saloon, the party giving up the trial first to be considered a second class drinker, and pay for a grand supper. Both parties to this novel and disgusting contest were large men, the physician being able to turn the scales at 220 pounds, while the brewer was perfectly mammoth in proportions,—a perfect Gambrinus,—weighing fully 250 pounds. A large crowd of professional and amateur drinkists were on hand when the match commenced, and the bets were freely taken in favor of the brewer, the German elemgnt predominating. The first instalment of four bottles of what was labelled 'Bourbon Whisky' were disposed of, each man drinking the same as his opponent, and at the same time. The whisky gave them renewed vitality, apparently, for they laughed and talked right merrily, albeit they drank about once every five minutes, and drank deep and deeper. They changed their tipple to claret, as a tonic, and here the Frenchman seemed to be more at home. It did not suit the German so well, however, and it was soon changed to sherry, after three bottles had been gulped down by each. The sherry was only palatable while two bottles lasted—one each.

"Their eyes began to show that peculiarly glassy glare seen only in those upon whom the effects of liquor have gained ascendency, but their strong physique enabled them to keep their seats and their hands showed very little shakiness. They called for brandy, of which they partook a little more sparingly than of the other liquors, seemingly aware than while they had no fear of the previous draughts in which they had been indulging, there was death in the bowl" that contained this poison.

"The German reached out cautiously to the bottle to replenish his glass. The Frenchman endeavored to follow suit. The effort on the part of the latter was futile—he could not move his arm; he endeavored to reach out his other hand, but it fell off the arm of his chair and hung powerless. He straightened back in his chair slowly, his body made a convulsive movement, his face became horribly distorted, his eyes seemed as if they would fly out of their sockets, his tongue rolled out of his mouth, a few gasps, his body trembled all over like a shaken leaf—he was dead!

"While his funeral was on its way to the cemetery, the German also died, the coroner signing certificates ascribing death in both instances to heart disease.

DELUSIONS OF GIRLHOOD.—The following is a bit of Fanny Fern's experience:

I used to believe in school friendship. That delusion ended when Arabella Triplet told mutual friends that I was years and years her senior, knowing what a terrible fib she told.

I used to suffer pangs of anger because of woes of beggars. Since that I have seen one unstrap his leg in an area, and run off gaily on two legs of his own. An other threw a loaf of bread in the gutter, and I saw a third who had all day been yelling, "Please assist the blind," carefully examining his collection of ten cent stamps by the light of a friendly applewoman's candle.

I used to put the greatest faith in lover's vows. Now, I do not believe a man means anything he says to a woman, unless it is something disagreeable.

I used to believe in faithful servants. Since then I have hired girls from intelligence offices, and lost all my handkerchiefs but one.

I used to believe in beauty. Since then I have seen a bewitching belle take off half her hair, all her teeth, the best of her complexion, two pounds of cotton batting and a corset.

The country in Europe which is less favorable to the development of "self help" among the working people is Belgium. At Gand, a town of 120,000 population, 75,000 people live by the sweat of their brow, and it is estimated that two-thirds of these people are habitually patrons of the pawnbrokers' shops. There are streets given up to pawnbroking, and it is one of the most profitable businesses in the country. Any disasters in the markets, which these Belgium towns supply, enriches the brokers, while it makes the workers the slaves of those who lend them the means of life at the usual frightful usury. The most disastrous form of pledges at the pawnbrokers is the loan advanced upon the security of wages. There are numerous respectable institutions in all the great cities, which make this species of loan their business, but it seriously injures the working classes. In 1848, one of the most notable instances of the manner in which these pawnbroking institutions are patronized occurred in Flanders. The linen market was flooded and the Flemish market began to starve. The city of Gand took statistics on the number of pledges given to pawnbrokers during this crisis. It amounted to over 100,000. As this number was so near the city's population, it seemed to indicate that at least two-thirds of the working people habitually patronized their "uncle."

IT is said that the Danites, 500 Mormons, who secretly committed murder upon offending Gentiles for years, in obedience to the orders of Brigham Young and his Cabinet, have, in their turn, been placed under the ban, being considered now as more dangerous than useful, and are rapidly and mysteriously disappearing. Indeed, there are but few of them left, and they assert themselves marked and in constant danger of their lives.

A Massachusetts editor says: "A man who is owing us a little bill said he would call last week and pay us if he was alive. He still appears on the street, but, as he did not call, it is naturally supposed he is dead and is walking around to save funeral expenses."

Alex. H. H. Stuart seems like to be the next Conservative candidate for Governor of Virginia.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

CURE

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

THE DUTY OF TRUE NORTH CAROLINIANS.

Holden pretends that in organizing the militia, and in sending for Kirk and others to raise State troops, that he designs to execute the law and preserve peace and order. It is all pretense. He knows that he speaks falsely when he says so. He knows that every Sheriff in the State, without a posse, can execute the law. This is the testimony of Radical Sheriffs all over the State.

It has leaked out that, in raising these State troops, his object is mischief. His organ has, on more than one occasion, made a declaration of war upon the peace men, the Conservatives and Democrats of the State. His own utterances and those of his organ and of Kirk and others, show that he means blood—war to the knife, in order to carry the August elections for the Radicals. He knows the people of the State are aroused at the corruption, robberies and extravagance of his administration. That the people of North Carolina have already condemned, and that they only want a fair chance to drive every scoundrel in his party from place and power at the August election. He trembles in his shoes at the prospect of utter defeat. His State troops are designed to prevent this. He puts Kirk forward to arouse the people to resistance by his lawless acts. Holden thirts for blood rather than submit to defeat.

We know that Holden's administration and his efforts to degrade and ruin the people of the State have been sufficient to arouse any people to retaliation. We know that they have borne more than any so called free people ever did bear without retaliation. But we counsel you, fellow-citizens, still to forbear as long as forbearance is possible.

Keep cool. Be calm, yet determined to maintain your vested rights. Don't be alarmed. Never prove recreant to law, to truth, to justice. Dare to maintain your rights as freemen. But keep the law—preserve the public peace, and do your duty as good citizens.

Use argument, reason, persuasion, to induce every white and colored voter to vote for the Conservative Democratic ticket. Avoid all threats—all menaces—all improper efforts to secure votes. Get everything ready for the day of election. Go to the polls early and late, and vote as honest freemen. The Constitution and the laws, give you the right to vote as you please.—Therefore we say, go to the polls, every one of you. Preserve order at the polls, but do your duty to your State and cast your ballot in despite of Holden or Kirk or any one else. Watch the enemy—watch the poll keepers—have true men at the polls to see that every man entitled is allowed to vote. Take lists of the voters; see that their votes are counted and that correct returns are made. Detect and expose, and enforce the law against every attempt to stuff the boxes or throw out sound votes.

Let no Conservative or Democrat join the State troops. There is no law for such troops. There is no money in the State Treasury to pay them. Turn your backs upon it. Nor should any true man receive office from Holden in his State troops, or his militia. It all only means mischief; therefore shun it as a viper.

OUT FOR SHERIFF.

Mr. S. P. Gill announces himself, as independent candidate for Sheriff, and, we suppose, wants Conservative Democrats, as well as others to vote him. Mr. Gill went into the Conservative Democratic County Convention, asking the nomination as candidate for Sheriff, pledging himself to support the nominee. If he had gotten it, we suppose he would have considered it very wrong in the other candidates, who failed to get it, to refuse to support him; because having gone into the Convention they were in honor, bound to abide its decision.

In this conclusion he would have been right.

We are passing through an important political crisis; party organization is necessary to a successful issue. He who, under the influence of private feeling or passion, attempts to break up a party organization, at such a crisis as the present, endangers the success of the efforts being made to throw off the yoke of high taxes, extravagance and oppression. No man has a right to do this to gain his own private ends or advancement.

Stick to your nominees—in that way lies safety and success.

On Monday last the northern part of Person County was visited by a hail storm which did some damage.

DIALOGUE II.

Conservatives, Democrat and Conservative Republicans, meet on the Radical coming in in much haste, conceives on proceeds.

Democrat.—You see neighbor Radical, we are all here before you, and up to time. What detained you?

Radical.—Yes I was a little belated. A "friend and brother" desired me to become his bail, hence I was detained. They are troublesome customers. But as long as we have a use for them, they must be attended to. Let us proceed in our conversation, observing the same kind spirit exhibited in our former interview. And to start the ball, please state your objections to the principles of the Radical party, and then we can proceed to discuss its practices and especially the measures of Gov. Holden's administration.

Conservative.—It is difficult to discuss the principles of a party, unless they are specifically stated and defined. Radicalism, I perceive, is not the same at all times and in all places; at least, Radicals do not all define it alike, though perhaps there are some general characteristics, in which all agree. For instance, it seems to be a well settled principle with all Radicals, to fight the war over every month; to denounce secessionists and rebels violently every week; to dilate upon the insult rebs injuries inflicted upon Union men; to clamor against every political opponent as still in rebellion to the government; to get excited over every crime committed not directly chargable upon a Radical or Union Leaguer, and charge it upon Ku Klux, by whom is always meant Conservatives or Democrats; to charge Democrats with the purpose of reducing the colored race again to slavery, and to insist that every office in the country must be filled by loyal men, by which is meant, Radical office seekers, whether native whites or colored men or carpet baggers, without regard to their capacity or honesty.

Radical.—You are disingenuous neighbor Conservative. I speak of the fundamental principles of our party; not the common talk used by Radicals for effect. I mean first, that great doctrine set forth by the immortal Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, that "all men are created free and equal"—that the human race is a unit and all are entitled alike to freedom, to equal protection and equal privileges—in a word, that as God has made no difference in the human family, that human governments shall make none. Secondly, that our Republican government is not a government of States, divided into petty sovereignties, but is one—one in sovereignty and control, deriving its powers from the people and concentrated in the Congress of the United States, so that we shall be one nation, governed by the same head and the same laws. That labor shall be protected by rigid enactment—that the industries of the people shall be protected by import duties, that the national debt shall be inviolable and sacred, and that education shall be universal.

Conservative Republican.—You have well stated the principles of the Republican party as I understand them, neighbor Radical, and upon these I heartily agree with you, but I cannot endorse the extreme measures, the intolerant spirit, the unjust discriminations made against the people of the South, the manifest corruption, extravagance and waste if not robberies of the public funds, so palpable in the conduct of the party. These are outside of our principles and I denounce them. I am for universal liberty, universal equality, universal suffrage, universal amnesty and good will to all men.

Radical.—You are too liberal neighbor Conservative Republican Grant what you want and the loyal men will be driven from power in the land, and the offices will be filled by Democrats and Conservatives and the war will have been fought in vain.

Democrat.—I fear neighbor Radical, after all your glorification of your principles, the milk in the cocoa-nut, is, that the offices, the power and the pay, constitute the real principles of the Radical party. The glowing presentation of your principles made by yourself and neighbor, Conservative Republican, sounds well in theory, but is utopian in practice. Mr. Jefferson certainly never intended his assertion of human equality to be construed and practiced upon as now held by the modern Republicans and Radicals. In proof of this, the Republican party of his day and during its existence, never held nor practiced the Radical views now held by your party.—Your Republicanism is a totally different thing from that held by the glorious old party, led by Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, and others. If this be not a government of States "e pluribus unum," many united in one for certain specific purposes, but a centralized government at Washington under Congress, it is not the Republican government formed by our fathers, held, governed and controlled by a written constitution, but is an oligarchy and a despotism, and in no just sense a Republic; such a government limits no constitution or charters but the will of Congress, and it has been forced upon us as the Empire was in France, by the ballot, ordered, controlled and subject to the power of the bayonet. Your principles are essentially Radical—Radical in theory and practice—working if carried out, a total change in the government and in the people. To call it Republican, is a misnomer. But we have no time to give the discussion this wide range. Let us come to matters more practical.

Conservative.—Just so neighbor Democrat. The Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina, have no disposition to revive questions which the results of the war and the voice of the country have settled irreversibly, perhaps, for all time, no more than they have to fight the war over again. Let by gones be by gones. The living issues of the present time involve the life and prosperity of the State and country in future. The bread and meat for our wives and children and our future peace and prosperity depend upon those issues.—Slavery is forever dead. The country, and the South especially yielded to the decision, that suffrage and its sequences, are henceforth the right of the colored man equally with the white man—that equal laws shall protect or restrain them alike—that all just debts, National and State, shall be lawfully discharged and that education and protection to labor shall be provided equally for all—that the interests of the two races are identical and that they should live together in harmony and concord, working together for each other's and the general prosperity. We do not however, assent to the wisdom or utility of those laws passed by Congress, which evidently look to the destruction of all distinctions in society and which would destroy the social status of mankind. We are opposed to the amalgamation of the two races and to those laws which force society out of those channels which God and nature have traced so palpably for its current.

Conservative Republican.—I concede neighbor Conservative, that the Conservatives and Democrats in the South have yielded very gracefully, considering how bitter the pill was to them, to the "logic of events." But I think your fears are more imaginary than real, as to the practical working of those laws to which you refer. The colored race will learn, at least, after awhile, that social equality cannot exist in society, nor will they desire it, after they look more closely into it.

Democrat.—I have great sympathy for the colored race, neighbor Conservative Republican. I have lived with them in terms of friendship all my life. They dandled me on the knee and nursed me. I understand the negro's character. It let alone they would never desire social equality—nor would the preservation of proper distinctions in society ever have excited unkind feelings in them towards the whites, were it not that the Radicals need their votes, and in order to secure them, will for the time, ignore these distinctions.

Radical.—Pooh! neighbor Democrat, don't talk so seriously about the matter. We, the Radicals, think we have a claim upon their support, and suppose we do caress them a little, throw our arms around a darkey to make him feel that we love him, drink with him at the same restaurant, sit at the same table, now and then dance and frolic with the colored ladies, and if hard put up sleep in the same room or bed, what harm is there in that? Do you suppose that President Grant favored social equality, by recognizing Senator Revels and his wife, at his public receptions, or inviting them to dine with him? The idea is ridiculous. We'll make the negroes understand that they may go so far with us, but no farther.

Conservative Republican.—What else but social equality is it neighbor Radical? I abominate such a mixture. I have no fondness for such intimacy, and when you begin to see the fruits of such association upon your children, you'll regret it, when alas! it may be too late.

Radical.—Why neighbor Conservative Republican, you talk like a Democrat.

Conservative.—Yes, and he talks sense. I think all that the colored race desire, at least those who are sensible, thoughtful and sober, is nothing but what is right and just and kind from us. That we should give them, but as neighbor Democrat said, they are being misled and injured by the conduct of carpet baggers and scalawags, (I mean no offence neighbor Radical,) for the purpose of getting their votes. Let us discuss the measures of the Radical's and Gov. Holden's administration.

Democrat.—Our time is passing away, and we cannot now enter upon so wide a field of discussion. I suggest that we take another day for it. Our discussion so far has been pleasant and I hope profitable.—Let us fix the time of our next meeting.

It was done and the neighbors separated.

CLIO.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

Thirteen young men graduated at Davidson College on Thursday, June 30th. Three of these were old Chapel Hill students; of these three, one was a "first mite man" and the latinist of the day. The other two were "second mite men." Thus it is that the students who were driven away from Chapel Hill, are taking their influence to other Institutions. The students, who, seeing that they could finish their education, as they had begun it at Chapel Hill, went to other colleges have shown there at once scholarship of a very high order was not only attainable but also attained at the University of North Carolina. At Yale, at Princeton, at the University of Va., at Davidson, some of the best scholars of late have been of those who were denied at our old University the training they sought there, and would still seek in their native State. The problem to be solved by the denominational Colleges in North Carolina, is, "Can these Institutions supply what once was supplied by the University of our State?" The friends of each, of course, say "Yes." Time only can verify this answer. The Presbyterians whose creed embraces perseverance and rejects falling from grace, will soberly and steadily go on in good old paths to preserve the confidence that the public in all parts of our county has, for many years, reposed in them as teachers and trainers of young men.

The largest crowd to be found in North Carolina, assembling before Seniors delivering their graduating orations, collect annually at Davidson College. Thirty years ago the prettiest girls in Western North Carolina were to be found at the Commencements at Davidson College. Those pretty girls have become staid and dignified matrons, who stay at home and send their daughters to do as they did—assert a woman's right to the homage of the gallant, the polite and the educated sons of their neighbors. Last year visitors from middle North Carolina expressed gratification at finding at Davidson, evidence that there were still in our State those who, although repelled from Chapel Hill, would still be at pains to show their appreciation of the higher culture as well as those who are to be known by their fruits as successful in promoting this culture. This year these expressions of gratification were repeated by those who came from South Carolina to see the fair and hear the wise of North Carolina near their their own homes. Nor was their gratification visionary. The subjects of the following Senior orations, and the modes in which they were treated showed that their authors were in full sympathy with the movements of the time, and that they were well prepared to add to the momentum that is forcing society forward to some level higher than it has yet attained.

These speeches were as follows:

Latin Salutatory—Wilson J. McKay, Harnett county, N. C.

Philosophical oration, "The Atmosphere"—James H. McClintock, Chester, C. H., S. C.

"Man a Mystery to Himself"—S. Henry Bell, New Hanover county, N. C.

"The Demands of the Times"—J. Lewis Bell, Greenwood, S. C.

"Science in the Middle Ages"—George Summey, Asheville, N. C.

"God and our Country"—Edwin W. Kerr, New Hanover county, N. C.

"Success—On what does it depend?"—Alexander Malloy, (Excused.) Richmond county, N. C.

"Agriculture, the Basis of National Prosperity"—Robt. B. McAlpine, Union county, Arkansas.

"The Orphans of the South"—William A. Milner, Cartersville, Ga.

"Theory and Action"—Branch G. Clifford, (Excused.) Salisbury, N. C.

"The Revelations of Nature"—Emmett A. Ramsay, Marysville, Tennessee.

"Chinese Immigration"—Joseph K. Rankin, Lenoir, N. C.

"Let us too be up and Doing"—Wilson J. McKay, Harnett county, N. C.

Valedictory Adresses—James B. Smith, Anderson county, S. C.

Messrs. Smith, McKay, McClintock and Summey, were "the first honor men" of the class, and their speeches were worthy of their scholarship. Besides these, the efforts of Messrs. J. L. Bell, McAlpine and Milner were regarded as of more than ordinary power and interest.

On the Wednesday evening preceding, the representatives of the two Societies asked the public to decide whether the Philanthropic Society, with old "Ds" blue colors or the Eumenean Society with old "Phi" red colors, should receive the prize of praise for oratory.

These speeches and speakers were as follows:

"Write me as one who loves his fellow man."—J. Harrison Lowry, Eumenean Society, McMinn county, Tennessee.

"Let all the ends thou aimest at be thy country's, thy God's and truth's."—Franklin McNeill, Philanthropic Society, Robeson county, N. C.

"The Lost Cause."—Erasmus E. Erwin, Eumenean Society, Clarendon District, S. C.

"Home."—M. H. Wooten, Philanthropic Society, Lenoir county, N. C.

"Individual Rights."—J. Harvey Hamnet, Eumenean Society, Manning, S. C.

"Our Fallen Star."—James A. Smith, Jr., Philanthropic Society, Robeson county, N. C.

The public, generally, assigned this sought for praise to Mr. Erwin for the manner of his effort, and to Mr. McNeill for the matter. One thing young men at College ought to remember above all things, and that is, they did not go to College to study politics, and that their audiences did not assemble to hear them talk it either historically or prophetically. A wiser than Solomon has declared that the mouth speaketh out of the abundance of the heart. An old latin writing Heathen has issued the advice "Ne sutor ultra crepidam." So the heads and hearts of Juniors and Sophs ought to be full of criticism, and philosophy and science. Discussions on such subjects suit the groves of Academia well, and are refreshing to those who get politics enough in the papers and from the stump.

Besides these manifestations of what and how young men are likely to write and speak hereafter, the audiences at Davidson heard words of a practical wisdom from the lips of Judge Aldrich of South Carolina, who was a Judge when learning and courtesy and "a good report" was necessary to secure a seat on the bench. His subject was also "the demand of the times." These, according to one who is eminent for exemplifying what he targht, are nobility of aim and courtesy of manner in every performance of duty, so that our land may be full of gallant gentlemen, and graceful ladies—manners—that we may be surrounded with generous souls who know their rights and dare maintain them on all proper occasions, men who are at once progressives and conservatives—economy, that we may be independent, and free to use what we have according to the suggestions of liberality or the appeals of necessity, and finally, carefulness in association whether with the living in their actions or with the dead in their writings, whether with the present by sight and by sound or with the absent by the fancy and the imagination. An appeal to our women whether married or maiden, to help our men supply these wants of the times, was very delicate and very eloquent, and his reference to "Gaston and Swain" as being examples of such men as our land ought to be filled, with concluded an address which was listened to with the deepest attention. It was timely, well elucidered, clearly expressed and impressively uttered.

It is to be hoped that at all our colleges the sermons of commencement week will be confined to the Sunday of the week. They are entirely out of place when placed among Annual Addresses, representative Essays and Senior Orations. Utterances from the pulpit by a minister of the Church should always be regarded as belonging to a sphere entirely apart from the mere speculations of Philosophy.

If any body could have made a crowd on Wednesday of a Commencement week feel as if at preaching, the Rev. Dr. McQueen of Sumter, South Carolina, would have made it serious. But the task is too severe for a mere mortal. Had his surroundings been more appropriate the preacher's comparison and discussion of the nearly contemporaneous conversions of St. Paul, the Ethiopian Eunuch, and the Roman Captain, the Jew, the Proselyte and the Gentile, the Philosopher, the Courtier, and the Soldier, the Asiatic, the European and the African, would have left the profound impression that this very able and eloquent handling of these typical and prophetical events was well calculated to produce. It seemed impossible for the aged to doubt, while listening to this devout interpreter of things divine, that the time is fast approaching when "Zion's King shall reign victorious," or for the young to refuse co-operation in making this kingdom glorious over all the earth. But the Holy Sabbath day is the time most appropriate for the indulgence of such high hopes and solemn resolves. In this respect the Baccalaureate sermon, preached this year by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson of Raleigh, had decidedly the advantage of this sermon before the "William's Missionary Association." Mr. Atkinson's theme in the morning was the sanctifying power of divine truth in the soul of man, and at sight the necessity of a child like disposition so as to receptivity to secure the end of that power. Reason was successfully appealed to to show that truth is the true pabulum for the soul. It only can cause that the measure of a perfect stature be attained by any soul which can know or feel, or will. Revelation was also cited abundantly and felicitously, to fortify the science, the positions suggested by reason. It was the Incarnate word, without whom nothing was made that was made, who knows what is in man and what ought to be there—it was He who needs no testimony from man concerning man's condition, that prayed "Sanctify them through thy truth." It was the great inspector and revealer of the thoughts of all hearts that assures us that we must become as little children, if the truth does us the good it was intended to do. These two sermons unconsciously prepared the way most beautifully for Mr. McQueen's sermon—and this fully endorsed the positions taken by Mr. Atkinson, on the principle 'exempla solent magis quam precepta." These Commencement sermons are of more than ordinary interest to the public. The solemn circumstances that attend them, give them peculiar force. It is a great satisfaction at such a time, to listen to such discussions, full of weighty thoughts, that by the divine blessing make sink deep into souls trained to be influential in our land, if not in all lands. It is to be hoped that such salt will never lose its savor.

People cannot be solemn and sorrowful all the time, even when they come, as the girl came to be married, "a purpose." So those who were serious before the representatives of the pulpit and the bench, and who wept at the valedictories of the seniors, were ready for a laugh when they gathered to witness the tom foolories of the Ugly Club, on Thursday night. Indeed, some sandwiched their sobs with a smile when "good bye" was said to the girls.—Everybody there knew that "for an hour or so" was 'understood," as the boys say, in parsing. The "Uglies" took it into their heads, after they had got a heap of foolishness out of them, to elect Gov. Vance a member of their fraternity. But the Governor, in his own inimitable, unreportable way with infinite humor, declined the honor, rather he resented the disgrace of being counted as one of such a Ku Kluxy looking set of deformities. The fun, of what was then and there seen and heard, was rich, rare and racy, and fully redeemed the evening from the dulness that is apt to accompany wit cut and dried. This is very likely to be trimmed out of all comeliness of shape, and to be dried past all possibility of being moistened again.

The music for this occasion was furnished by the Salem Brass Band, which fully sustained the reputed on of that venerable town, as being the home of sweet sounds and the resort of fair forms. From Salem, the city of peace, one has a right to expect a concord of harmonious tones, and in this expectation no one at Davidson was disappointed. Nor will any one ever be disappointed who goes to Davidson to see something worth seeing, to hear something worth hearing, or to eat a mething worth eating, and that with either body or soul.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON CITY, July 1870.

MR. EDITOR: As the legislating for all the Southern States has been concocted in this city for the last five years, it will not be amiss to inform the people of North Carolina through your journal, what is now going on in the federal city among those who play the master over the South.

Governor Holden is here to raise $50,000 for the campaign in North Carolina. It is reported he let drop a hint against the removal of the disabilities of the Hon. Sion H Rogers.

The common talk from Senators Abbott and Pool, has been that Governor Graham and a few such men should be arrested and held as hostages for the good behavior of the Ku Klux. It was these two Senators who telegraphed or caused it to be done that Judge Graham was greatly censured for not taking a stand against the Ku Klux. The talk here among the Reputeans is, that they will raise $100,000 to carry your election in August.

We learn the Governor does not carry the money with him, but it will be forwarded to him in a few days. Your people are not aware of it, but they will never see another honest election. Northern money will corrupt the Southern ballot box as it has corrupted the Northern.

One rumor here is that the President did not encourage Gov. Holden's military movements in your State, another is that he did. The probability is that he did not, unless in case of "insurrection, rebellion or invasion." The President could not send troops to your State. He has made no order for it, and until I see the order I shall not believe that he ordered the troops there. One thing is certain, the federal troops that were ordered to your State some six months ago did not go by order of the President. Their going was an arrangement between the Governor and Gen. Canby at Richmond.

It is to be hoped your people will not be bought or intimidated. I look with much interest to the result of your election. If necessary the Republicans here will raise $100,000 to carry it and they would order the army caps to help.

I have given you all the rumors about your State—may God give your people courage, strength and virtue enough to repel the violence and resist the bribes which they offer.

Yours,

A NATIVE.

RESIGNATIONS.

At the late County Convention held by the Conservatives and Democrats for Wake county, Messrs. R. H. Jones and G. H. Alford were nominated, among others as candidates for the House of Representatives, and Messrs. W. R. Pool and Daniel Scarborough were nominated among others for Commissioners. Finding that they are banned by the 14th amendment, they have declined the nomination. The following note from Messrs. Pool and Scarborough has been handed us for publication. It will be seen that the Convention has been called to re-assemble to fill the vacancies:

RALEIGH N. C, July 8, 1870.

Maj. A. Bledsoe, Esq., President of Conservative Convention of the County of Wake:

SIR—At the late County Convention the undersigned had the honor to be nominated for County Commissioners of Wake county. Believing it to be the duty of all good citizens to obey the voice of the people when clearly expressed, when called to their service, we would readily consent to the use of our names as candidates for the office of Commissioners for this County, but for the fact, that prior to the war we both served, free of charge, as Justices of the Peace for several years.—For this offense we are banned, and prevented to hold any office in the State, to which any of our former slaves are eligible. We, therefore, respectfully decline the nomination and ask that other men, good and true, be placed on the Conservative ticket in the place of ours.

Very respectfully,
DANIEL SCARBOROUGH,
WM. R. POOL.

KNIFE FOUND.—A small colored boy offered a new knife at this office, for sale last night, which he claims to have found.—From the description given of the boy, he is the same who has been trying to sell other new knives in the city for the last day or two. The knife is held till we hear more on the subject. It is of the dirk or Bowie family.

SOIREE DANSANTE.—Last evening Mrs. Adele Slater, the accomplished teacher of dancing, gave at Tucker Hall a brilliant soiree dansante, which was attended by the beauty and fashion of our city.

The occasion was so highly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present that a repetition of the entertainment is universally desired.

The charming and graceful manner in which the Madam's pupils executed many difficult and intricate dances, reflected the highest credit upon her as a competent instructress of the Terpsichorean art.

The Soiree was a delightful affair in every respect, and all the participants unite in tendering Madame Slater their thanks for the pleasant evening which her graceful entertainment afforded them.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS.—We are requested by Mr. Ball, Registrar for Raleigh township, to say that he will attend at the Court House every day, except Sundays, from now until the 3rd of August from 9 A. M to 3 P. M., to register, the names of such voters as may be entitled to register, and have not heretofore done so; and on the 4th, (election day), he will attend from 6 A. M. to 6 P. M.

CAPTAIN GENERAL OF INIQUITY.

When Burke held up Warren Hastings and his crimes before the House of Lords and the civilized world, he said, "We have brought before you the chief of the tribe, and the head of the whole body of eastern offenders, 'a Captain General of iniquity,' under whom all the frauds, all the peculation, all the tyranny in India are embodied, disciplined, arrayed and paid."

We hear daily talk of Swepson, Littlefield, Dr. Sloan and his confession of bribery; Judge Watts and Tim. Lee's evidence convicting him of bribery; of Deweese and his buying off Kildee Lassiter and Jim Harris; of Lassiter and Jim Harris's hundred thousand dollar location of the Penitentiary on Deep River; of Treasurer Dave and his sale of the N. C. Railroad bonds; of Pilgrim Ashley, Menninger, Cebe Harris, Henderson Adams and Dave Jenkins, selling the school bonds for $50,000 on a credit of five years, when they knew that the purchasers had already sold ten thousand acres of the three hundred thousand, for what they paid for the whole; of the $241,000 paid by Swepson to bribe the legislature to pass bills for swindling the people; of how the legislature ruined the State's credit by repealing their own acts, after first straining it by their $26,000,000 appropriations.

These and many more crimes, peculations and frauds, we hear spoken of on every hand, every day; they are become familiar as "household words," in North Carolina.

But what, or who, is the grand central sun around which these minor planets revolve in their corrupt orbits? Who is the "Captain General of Iniquity," who plans and directs the movements of the subordinates in crime and corruption?

The ruse now is to call the attention of the people from the recollection of these things and direct it to Kirk and his uniformed standing army marching to and fro through the State.

Let the people be on their guard and not suffer themselves to be drawn into any false issues with Gov. Holden, Abbott and Deweese. Let Kirk and Clarke march in peace wheresoever the "Captain General of Iniquity" may direct them. Let the United States troops come, and let their officers be treated as they deserve, like gentlemen. But let no man cease to remember that one man has brought the State to its present low condition. Let them cease to think of Swepson, Littlefield, Sloan, Jones, Kirk and Deweese, as the main instruments of our oppression, and think of "the Captain General of Iniquity," who is not only known to give aid, countenance and encouragement to these active agents, but to give them office and place, and retain them after they are detected in fraud, peculation and bribery.

Brownlow was the "Captain General of Iniquity" in Tennessee; Kirk and his militia could not have him; the people with unprecedented unanimity, condemned him at the polls.

Gov. Holden is the moving spirit, the Captain General of the political and financial movements in North Carolina, since his administration came into power,—Swepson, Littlefield, Jones, Sloan, et id omne genus, are but co-operative agents and appointees. Each of these is responsible for his own acts; the head is responsible for all. They combine to cheat, defraud and swindle only by the power he gives them.

We say emphatically that Governor Holden is "the chief of the tribe," the head of the body. This we shall continue to believe; this all good men must believe, until they hear some reproof, some reprimand to Swepson, Littlefield, Sloan, Watts, and the whole tribe, who have plundered the people and ruined the credit of the State, and who are now engaged in an effort to stifle the free voice of the people at the ballot box.

BURN ON!

A letter from home, received this morning, informs us of an attempt to burn our house, night before last. A pile of splinters, burnt matches, rags and paper saturated with kerosene oil, was found yesterday morning, where none but an incendiary would have placed them.

We say to the Jacobinical assassins of the Leagues, shoot on! we have added another policy of five thousand dollars to our life insurance, this week. We ask neither pity, protection nor quarter. We only ask that the people may unite to put down your secret clubs and associations.—Then, and not till then, will there be security for life or property.

PERSONAL.—We had a call yesterday from Mr. John B. Brown, formerly of Wilmington, North Carolina, now of the firm of Owens & Brown, general wholesale dealers in Wines and Liquors, 44 West Lombard street, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Brown is out on a tour through this State, enlarging the circle of his acquaintance with business men, and taking orders for his house. By request, and as an advertisement we give the following range of brands and prices, by this house. Mr. Brown will be in Raleigh again about the 20th inst.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Everybody, married or single, should have their lives insured, so as to leave something behind them for their families. If a man insures his life when he is young, the premium is not near so much as when he gets older. Few people notice this, but keep putting it off until the premium is more than they care to pay, and then they do not insure at all. The longer you postpone it, the more it will cost you when you decide to assure; or your health may decline, and you may be unable to pass the required medical examination; or life may suddenly end. All we have to say is this: if you wish to insure your life in a good and reliable company, go to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, SAMUEL DOUGLAS WAIT, General Agent, opposite the Post Office.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—It is asserted that the Georgia bill will not be touched this session.

Revenue $808,000.

Horace Greeley and Ackerman had a long interview with Grant.

The House refused to concur in the Senate funding bill. Schenck, Harper and Brooks were appointed a Committee of Conference on the part of the House.

Ex-Collector Bailey's account show only $131,000 deficiency.

Customs for the week ending July 2nd, over 2½ millions.

There is no present prospect of Fish's retiracy from the Cabinet. Fish, however, will not go to St. James'.

The President will, in a few days, nominate at successor to Motley.

The House finally passed the majority resolutions regarding Woods, which jails him for three months.

The Conference Committee's report on the currency bill was adopted. The bill provides for an increase of $4,000,000; the circulation and the retirement of $45,000,000 of 3 per cents. The Senate's provision in relation to coin notes is retained, and also, the House provision of the retirement of $25,000,000; the States now in excess, with a proviso that this amount shall not be withdrawn until the entire $356,000,000 shall have been taken by the States now in deficient.

Brooks introduced a bill to incorporate the Tehuantepec Railway and Ship Canal Company; referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

In the Reconstruction Committee a motion to report the general amnesty bill for action at this session was lost by a tie vote; the Committee stands 5 to 5. As there were some absentees it is possible that this action may be reconsidered at a future meeting. Some of the southern members announce their intention to test the sense of the House upon the subject by introducing Gen. Butler's bill and asking a vote on the bill under a motion to suspend the rules.

SENATE.—The Judiciary Committee was discharged from the consideration of female suffrage memorials.

The bill requiring liquidating National Banks to retire their notes was amended and passed.

Mr Sawyer from the Committee on Appropriations reported the House appropriation bill, which provides that in the Fifth Military District the pay of the Registers and Sheriffs shall be six dollars per day instead of five as fixed by Act of 1870, and makes the necessary appropriation to supply the deficiency. The bill was passed.

The Post office Committee reported a bill for steamships between Cedar Keys and Havana with amendments.

The naval appropriation bill was resumed and passed without amendment.

The apportionment bill passed with an amendment which takes it back to the House.

FOREIGN

LONDON, July 7.—There is much excitement on the continent in view of the threatened European complication on the subject of Prince Leopold's candidature for the Spanish throne.

Dispatches from Paris say there is a strong feeling in France even outside of official circles against the bestowal of the Spanish crown on any Hohenzollern.

Tranquilizing assurances of the French Emperor have exerted a beneficial effect in Paris and particularly on the Bourse.

It is a fact well informed circles that an alliance between France and Austria has been concluded.

Paris authorities here have been assured that full three-fourths of the members of the Spanish Cortes are favorable to the elevation of Prince Hohenzollerin to the Spanish crown.

It seems there is no doubt that the King of Prussia is favorable to the project and refuses any explanation in reply to the note from the French Government.

Dispatches from Madrid announce that at a Council of the Ministers yesterday, the course of Prim was unanimously approved, as is the candidacy of Prince Hohenzollerin accepted. They authorized the Minister of Foreign Affairs to present the name of the candidate to the Cortes, which will probably be convened expressly for that purpose. The Council of Ministers hope that the Prince will receive more than 170 votes, the minimum required by the resolution of the Cortes 3rd of June. The Prince is expected to arrive at Madrid early in November. The Spanish fleet will be dispatched for him.

The "Gaulois," an independent organ, has the following this morning: "General Prim in reply to a dispatch from Olozaga, the Spanish ambassador at this city, asserts he has acted with the consent of the Regent Serrano, unofficially and on side of diplomacy. Finding difficulty in obtaining a card date for the Spanish throne, he addressed Prince Hohenzollerin, who unites many qualities, but whose personal importance was thought too insignificant to give umbrage to France. But as such an emotion has been created, General Prim retracts and assures the French Government of the sincerity of his intentions."

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Indian affairs are assuming a serious aspect. North Park miners in Colorado have been massacred.

The Utes and Cheyennes are fighting among themselves. Sherman has advices that the sioux are preparing for raids.

Advices to the Quaker Commission are more pacific.

Ackerman was in the Cabinet this morning.

The Senate has occupied all the morning on the bill relieving 76 Kentuckians from political disabilities. An amendment covering some five thousand persons was offered.

The House passed the river and harbor bill as amended by the Senate.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the deficiency appropriation bill.

VIRGINIA.

NORFOLK, July 8.—Sheriff Mayhew and Deputy Sheriff Stevens, to-day completed the removal of 700 negro squatters who have since 1863 occupied the "Taylor farm," nine miles from Norfolk. The negroes were well armed, but offered no forcible resistance to the execution of the writ of ejectment. A large part of the squatters have been settled on Gen. Butler's land, near Hampton.

A large and spirited mass meeting was held last night to consider the proposed subscription of $1,000,000 to the Norfolk and Great Western Railroad; ex-Mayor DeCordy in the chair. The meeting was addressed by Col. R. O. Lindsey, Judge Asa Biggs, Joseph T. Wilson, and Dr. Byrne.

The meeting strongly endorsed the proposed subscription and believed the time had come when intelligent and well directed enterprise must take the place of traditional waiting for grants to be forced upon us.

The route of the Norfolk and Great Western Railroad extend from Norfolk via Danville, Va., to Bristol on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The rain throughout the Northwest will immensely benefit the crops.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, July 8.—De'modas has returned and states that the Spaniards are only opposed by small wandering parties.

PARIS, July 8.—The feeling regarding the Spanish question is somewhat more assuring. The Constitutional, the imperial organ, announces this morning that the Spanish minister received instructions to give the French Government official notice of the candidature of Hohenzollerin. The Constitutional adds, that when France becomes convinced of the persistence of Spain in this matter, she will terminate diplomatic relations with her.

I TOLD YOU A SHORT TIME AGO, WHAT Dr. Hammond, a celebrated New York physician said. Now let me tell you what every physician in Raleigh will tell you. That if you don't stop smoking PINK HARDIE'S Cigars, they will have to quit business. Why? Because everybody that smokes his Cigars keeps in such good humor that there is no possible chance of their getting sick. Do you want to fool the Doctors out of a fee, then come to PINK HARDIE'S and he will furnish you with the right brands.

THE EQUITABLE HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.
In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863 the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;
In 1869 it was the FIRST.
The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.
One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.
Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.
PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.
☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜
is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.
THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY IN ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!—

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agents. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skil and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
